

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Wednesday, Sept. 23

1998

Safety is Focus of Workforce Stand Down Day Wed. at MSFC

Marshall is observing Workforce Stand Down Day Wednesday, devoting the entire day to safety. A Safety & Health Fair will be held 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. in Bldg. 4200, Room G-13. Visiting astronauts and Center managers will tour MSFC facilities 10 a.m. - 2:30 p.m. "United Flight 232, the Unflyable Plane," will be the topic of a Lunch-n-Learn seminar at noon in Bldg. 4200, Morris Auditorium.

Visit New Marshall
Homepage at [http:// www.msfc.
nasa.gov](http://www.msfc.nasa.gov)

On-line Chat Session on Global Civil Aviation, 2 p.m. Wed., NASA Homepage

Two CFC Bus Tours Set for Thurs.

Two tours of recipient agencies of this year's Combined Federal Campaign are planned for Thursday.

Bus A — Technology Assistance for Special Customers and Children's Hospital

Bus B — Harris Home and Hope Place

Buses will stop at Bldg. 4610 at 8:15 a.m. and the north loop at Bldg. 4203 at 8:30 a.m. All Marshall employees and on-site contractors may participate in CFC activities. Contact: Karen Oliver, 4-6908

Wind Protection
Topic of Lunch-
n-Learn, Noon
Thurs. in Bldg.
4200, Morris
Auditorium